

Russian Plane Shot Down After Attack On UN Naval Force

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The United States declared today that a bomber marked with the red star of Russia was shot down after attacking United Nations naval forces off Korea.

In an unusual flurry of post-midnight activity, the state department called the incident to the attention of the U. N., under whose flag, U. S. and other forces are fighting off the Communist invasion of South Korea.

It was the first time this government has charged direct Russian participation in the fighting around Korea.

Accidents Kill 23 In Michigan

(By The Associated Press)

Violent accidents over the Labor Day weekend killed 23 in Michigan and more than 550 in the country as a whole.

Michigan's toll was below expectations, but the nation's was one of the largest on record. Seventeen died in Michigan traffic accidents, compared to 31 a year ago on the same four-day holiday. The country counted 359 dead on highways.

State and local authorities in Michigan repeatedly warned in pre-holiday messages against traffic hazards, pointing out more than 1,000,000 cars would be on the highways.

Cool weather contributed to the lighter-than-expected toll. It kept swimmers to a minimum, reducing the drowning toll, and caused many excursionists to cancel motor trips.

Four persons drowned in Michigan. They were Ralph Hill, 24, and his brother, Clark, 15, of Flint, drowned in Spring Lake in Ross common county; Robert Gregory, 21, Detroit, drowned in the Huron river near Brighton; and James Henry, 23, drowned in Grand Traverse Bay when his sailboat overturned.

Quake Jolts Italy

ROME — (AP)—A series of earth tremors shook central Italy from Rome to the Adriatic coast early today. The only damage reported was at the Abruzzi town of Teramo and nearby villages where a dozen persons were slightly hurt.

Congress Taking Recess Soon, But Has To Come Back

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON — (AP)—A drive to wind up its most urgent business may send Congress home on vacation in the next 10 days but most lawmakers think they'll be back after the November elections to wrestle with new issues raised by the Korean war.

President Truman is almost certain to ask the legislators for more military funds by January or earlier. Qualified legislators estimate the amount at $10,000,000,000 or more.

Mr. Truman also may come up with recommendations to change the military draft so as to meet the minimum goal of 3,000,000 men he has set.

Before Congress winds up its present affairs, leaders want action on some form of an anti-subversive bill. The House approved $16,771,000,000 emergency military money bill and the Senate approved $4,508,000,000 tax increase.

That schedule will leave some issues pending for a session later in the year, even if the President doesn't come through with any new proposals.

For instance, Mr. Truman has asked repeatedly for Senate action on House-approved bills to grant statehood to Hawaii and Alaska. Democratic leaders haven't found time for them on the crowded Senate schedule.

If the Senate doesn't act before this Congress ends, statehood advocates will have to start all over again in the next Congress in their drive to get approval of both houses.

Far outside the pale, with no present possibility of action, are the President's compulsory health insurance program and the so-called Brannan plan for supporting prices of perishable farm commodities.

Senate leaders had hoped to wind up business by the end of this week, but a 10-day recess which House members are taking will make it necessary that Congress stay over at least into next week.

Gen. Ike Tells U. S. To Get Set For Long War

By TOM ADEN

DENVER—Gen. Dwight Eisenhower warned last night that "Soviet planners contemplate for all the world, including America," the same fate as Russia's satellite countries.

He called on Americans to practice "Spartan frugality in all non-essential matters" to assure victory in "this bitter and probably prolonged struggle."

Politics Must Wait

"All lesser considerations must wait; we cannot tolerate politics as usual any more than we can tolerate business as usual."

"We must get tough—tough with ourselves."

The wartime commander of Allied forces in Europe spoke on a nationwide broadcast launching a Crusade for Freedom. Americans will be asked to sign a freedom scroll and contribute funds for a network of European radio stations to counteract Russian propaganda. It will supplement the work of the government's Voice of America.

Urging an individual and national tightening of belts, the president of Columbia university said:

"We must have efficiency and economy in all governmental expenditures."

"It would do no good to defend our liberties against Communist aggression and lose them to our own greed, blindness, ignorance or selfish reliance on bureaucracy and the federal treasury," he said.

Europe Tempting Target

He described condition in the totalitarian countries where "one third of the human race works in virtual bondage."

"This is what the Soviet planners contemplate for all the world, including America," said the commander of the armies which met their victorious Russian allies on the Elbe river in Germany less than six years ago.

"The die has been cast in Asia but we are in no limited engagement," he said. "Free Europe is still a tempting target for a predatory military force."

"We must give real support to all aspects of the military aid program and re-examine, at once, our strengths in critical areas."

Holiday Death Toll Over 550

(By The Associated Press)

The nation paid a record cost in lives for its Labor Day weekend. At least 551 persons were killed in accidents.

This toll shaded the former Labor Day holiday record of 550 killed a year ago.

However, the toll included 381 motor vehicle traffic fatalities—a figure under the 1949 record of 410 and well below the National Safety Council's prediction of 435 highway deaths for the weekend this year.

This year there were 73 drownings compared with 53 last year, and 97 deaths in the miscellaneous grouping compared with 87 a year ago.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the Safety Council, called the tragic death record "the most encouraging since the war."

He said "the National Safety Council believes the lower holiday toll is due to stricter traffic law enforcement and to a better response by motorists to appeals for extra care to meet the extra danger of heavy holiday traffic."

Detroit Fair Draws 156,772 Labor Day

DETROIT — (AP)—If the weather man doesn't play any tricks, more than one million persons may see this year's Michigan State Fair.

Yesterday 156,772 persons flocked to the fair grounds. This beat the record of 148,000 set last year and sent the four day total to over 517,000. The fair runs six more days.

Flaming Airliner Carries 13 To Death At Utica, N. Y.

UTICA, N. Y. — (AP)—Charged wreckage strewn over a farm pasture was all that remained today of a big airliner that carried 13 persons to their death. Ten injured holiday travelers were in hospitals.

The Robinson airliner DC-3 crashed into treetops and burst into flames about two minutes after taking off yesterday from the New Oneida county airport. It was bound for Newark, N. J.

Piston Blows Out

A family of five and the three-man crew were among those killed.

Four persons were thrown out as the plane hit. Three crawled through escape hatches and passersby pulled other survivors from the flaming wreckage.

The Civil Aeronautics Board began an investigation last night. It was reported unofficially that a piston of one engine blew about 30 seconds after it left the ground. The plane was too low to return to the field.

Just one seat was empty when the ill-fated airliner took off with 20 passengers, including homeward-bound vacationists and seven servicemen. That empty seat belonged to Ernest Kapps of

Ford Workers Get Pay Raise

(By The Associated Press)

Labor Day 1950 brought a welcome wage boost to Ford Motor company workers yesterday (Monday) and an agreement by CIO Electrical Workers to call off a strike scheduled for today.

The Electrical Workers accepted without reservation a government proposal—based on the hope of averting a defense production cut-back—to mediate a dispute over wages with the General Electric company.

Ford workers won a new five-year contract, carrying a wage boost which union officials estimated would mean from $45,000 to $50,000,000 yearly to some 126,000 workers.

Labor's annual holiday also produced the usual flow of oratory—some of it keyed directly to workers' problems and others calling on all citizens to gird for a struggle against Communism.

The dispute with General Electric had threatened to affect 46 or more GE plants and 120,000 workers—only about a third of them members of the CIO Electrical Workers Union. Some 37,000 members had been called upon to strike today.

Ore Shipments Gain

CLEVELAND — (AP)—Iron ore shipments from upper lake ports totaled 12,492,069 tons in August. This was an increase of 1,167,141 tons from the corresponding period a year ago when shipments were 11,314,928. Shipments to Sept. 1 were 46,768,263 tons, compared to 57,246,961 a year ago.

Among the dead were Seymour G. Epstein, his wife and three children of Baltimore, Md. They were ending a Florida's vacation that started in Florida for the parents and four-year-old Betsie, while the two boys were at a camp at Woodside, N. Y. The parents and Betsie had come north to accompany Warren, 13, and Bertram, 9, home from camp.

Father Rescues Son

One of the horrified crash witnesses was J. R. Hoff, who had watched his 18-year-old son, Army recruit J. R. Hoff, Jr., board the plane to return to Fort Dix, N. J.

The father sped to the crash scene, found his son, who had suffered minor burns, and drove him to Griffiths air force base in Rome.

A priest who was driving nearby heard the crash and ran half a mile across fields to administer the last rites of the Catholic church to the victims. He was the Rev. Justin Grabowski, pastor of St. George's church, Utica.

The crash occurred about a mile and a half east of the airport, which was opened only last week. Robinson inaugurated service at that time. It was the firm's first fatal crash in the five years it has been operating.

Home Front Controls Program Not Finished By President Truman

WASHINGTON D. C. — (AP)—The White House said today it is "extremely unlikely" that President Truman can complete action this week on his home front controls program.

Presidential Secretary Charles Ross told reporters that it probably will be early next week before Mr. Truman goes on the radio to tell what the government will do to step up defense production and hold down inflation.

Congress sent to the White House last Friday legislation giving the president broad powers to requisition materials, control credit, and—if necessary—put on wage and price controls.

The legislation is now going the rounds of the government departments which will administer it for recommendations before the actual signing takes place.

No Harm In Dime

PENSACOLA, Fla. — (AP)—Six-year-old Judy Dollar, a visitor from Birmingham, Ala., swallowed a dime last night. The Sacred Heart hospital took a couple of x-rays, and then let Judy go—ten per cent to the good. The dime was still inside her, and wouldn't do any harm, doctors said.

Hurricane Strikes Florida Mainland

MIAMI, Fla. — (AP)—The screaming winds of a tropical hurricane here down on mainland cities today, toppling trees and sending residents scurrying for storm shelters. The storm center crossed the coastline from the Gulf of Mexico at Cedar Keys, 52 miles southwest of Gainesville.

Heaviest winds reported were 75 to 80 miles an hour at Cedar Key, where the storm started inland.

Four hours later, however, Ocala, about 40 miles inland, reported only 32 mile winds with gusts up to 36 miles. Gainesville, 52 miles northeast of Cedar Key, had even less wind.

Between these cities and Cedar Key lay a severely salted woodland from which no reports of the storm's progress could be obtained.

Dunellon, a citrus packing town 15 miles inland had gale winds with some trees falling and most residents sheltered in the city hall and a school.

Tides from six and a half to eight feet above normal swept the resort area from Clearwater to Sarasota, washing out roads, toppling a beachfront house, sinking a few small boats, and piling sea water like lakes around homes and hotels.

Reds Seize Vital Roads; UN Troops Forced To Retreat

TOKYO, Wednesday — (AP)—Red Koreans tore a big hole in the northeastern wing of the 120-mile warfront Tuesday.

This threatened all of the United Nations 45-mile rim on the north.

Two North Korean columns with tanks shot through near Pohang port on the sea of Japan coast. One headed south, the other southwest.

Before them lay the twin highway junctions of Kyongju, 18 miles southwest of Pohang, and Yongchon, 20 miles east of Taegu, Allied base city of the central front.

In Washington the U. S. state department said a twin engine bomber bearing a Soviet red star was shot down Monday as it attacked U. N. naval forces off Korea. The body of a Russian lieutenant was recovered by an Allied destroyer, the state department said.

Headed For Taegu

But neither American nor British authorities in Tokyo confirmed the Washington announcement immediately.

Mud-spattered Allied troops halted the southern flank of the drive in the northeast two to five miles north of Kyongju.

The southwestern plunge by a force of unknown strength swept close to Yongchon, which was under short range mortar fire Monday night.

The Reds seemed headed for Taegu to the west of Yongchon, and the northwestern front rail hub some 12 miles in the rugged hills.

Pusan has not been closely approached by the North Korean forces. But a Russian war correspondent's dispatch published in Moscow said North Korean big caliber artillery began shelling the Pusan airdrome at dawn Tuesday. There was no confirmation of the Russian dispatch.

Mired In Mud

A driving rain beat down on the whole warfront, miring men and machines in mud and grounding 75 percent of normal Allied aerial support. Enemy frontline positions were bombed by radar-sighting Tuesday night.

Save on the northeastern front Allied troops more than held their own.

U. S. Marines and Second division infantrymen smashed ahead six miles in the bridgehead area west of Yongsan, 32 miles south of Taegu.

State Auditor Holds Up Salaries Of Five; Court Action Coming

LANSING — (AP)—The state auditor general today refused to pay five salaries specifically eliminated from the general appropriations bill by the legislature, and the attorney general promised immediate court action to force the payment.

Auditor General Muri K. Aten made the refusal in a reply to a letter from Attorney General Stephen J. Roth.

Aten said "the legislature was within and exercising its constitutional authority for not appropriating for these positions. * * * will hold the payroll warrants * * * until such time as there is a supreme court determination in the matter."

Veto Of Michigan's Anti-Red Bill Asked By Civil Rights Group

DETROIT — (AP)—A caravan from the Michigan civil rights congress planned to go to Lansing today to ask Gov. Williams to veto anti-subversive legislation.

The executive secretary of the congress, Arthur McPhaul, said several labor unions would cooperate in the protest against the recently-enacted legislation. He did not name the unions.

The legislation makes advocacy or an attempt to overthrow the state or federal government by force a crime.

It also creates a special police security squad to investigate subversive activities.

Children Must Be Protected

Warn Motorists to Be on the Alert

The reopening of school creates a special problem for auto drivers who must be constantly on the alert to avoid killing or injuring children on their way to and from school, it was pointed out today by law enforcement officers and school officials.

Many of the children are going to school for the first time. This means they are not yet familiar with the rules of traffic safety. Children also run and play and forget warnings of traffic danger.

For these reasons the motorists must be more alert than ever, both in driving city streets and along country roads, officers warned.

Last year over 4,000 children were hit by vehicles—and 119 of them died and many of the rest were severely injured.

Officers and school officials stressed the responsibility of the auto driver in connection with accidents in which children are killed or hurt.

While it is often true the child is at fault, they pointed out, adult motorists should join in the safety campaign and assume a greater share of responsibility in preventing accidents. The child is often thoughtless in his play; the driver has no reason to ever be thoughtless in his driving.

Cornell 4-H Club Honors Members at Farewell Parties

CORNELL—Members of the Cornell 4-H club following their recent meeting held a farewell party in honor of Elaine Zeglis who will make her future home in Chicago.

The program included songs led by Connie and Beverly Blixt. Elaine was presented with a gift.

The Cornell girl has been an outstanding 4-H club member, serving for several years as secretary and also as a junior leader. She received the county award last year for being an outstanding secretary.

The next 4-H club meeting September 11 will be a farewell party for Fred McFadden who is leaving for East Lansing to attend Michigan State college. Fred at present is attending the Canadian National Exposition in Toronto, an award he received at the state 4-H show in East Lansing. Another Cornell member to attend the state show was Emerald Miron who also attended the Wisconsin state fair and spent some time in Milwaukee enroute to East Lansing.

"Rented the first day" said Smith.

Watch Out

Many Crashes Mar Weekend

Few Are Hurt; Six Drivers Arrested

Six drivers were arrested for operating their cars while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and many crashes marked Labor Day weekend on highways and streets in Delta county.

None of the persons involved in the crashes sustained serious injuries. City and state police issued the following reports of accidents and arrests:

James Schwalback, 20, 511 North 20th street, today pleaded guilty in Justice Henry Ranguette's court to a drunk driving charge and was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and $8.25 costs or serve 30 days in jail. Schwalback, in service with the U. S. Army, is arranging to pay.

With Schwalback and arrested by Escanaba city police for being drunk and disorderly was Patrick A. Moran, 21, of Jersey City, N. J., who paid $10 and costs.

Robert Brebner of 913 First avenue north, James and Donald Provo of 1315 North 22nd street, escaped serious injury Labor Day evening when their car struck a tree at Sixth avenue north and North 21st street.

Gladstone state police reported that Mrs. Emily Stock, 54, and Mrs. Pearl Coffey, both of Milwaukee, suffered shock when cars operated by Roman Stock of Milwaukee, and Charles W. Scheibner, 22, of Detroit, collided on US-2 at the intersection with County Road 426. The accident occurred at 8:30 p. m. Sunday. Both cars were going south on US-2.

Fine and Jail

Today in Justice Henry Ranguette's court Scheibner pleaded guilty to a charge of drunk driving and paid a fine of $50 and costs. His operator's license was revoked.

Yesterday evening at 6:45 o'clock on US-2 at County Road 551 cars driven by John W. Shanahan, 65, of Escanaba, and Edward W. Brabant, 30, Chicago, collided without injuring any of the occupants. Both cars were traveling east.

George Meyer, 29, of 1427 North 18th street, Escanaba, today was arraigned in Justice Ranguette's court charged with driving while intoxicated and driving without a license. He was fined $75 and costs on the first count; and was fined $10 and spent two days in jail for driving after his license had been revoked because of a previous drunk driving charge.

Auto Hits Wrecker

George R. Budinger, jr., 29, also of Escanaba, today was arrested by state police for driving while intoxicated and will report to Justice Ranguette this afternoon for arraignment.

Neil Rinnemaki, 35, of Trautman, arrested by state police following an accident near Masonville, was ordered by Justice Ranguette to pay a fine of $50 and costs for drunk driving or spend 30 days in jail.

Rinnemaki was arrested after he attempted to pass another auto on US-2 and struck a Beaudry Garage wrecker, which was hauling a wrecked car from the ditch near Masonville at 1:30 a. m. Sunday. A car driven by Harold Wickstrom of Rapid River had struck the rear of a trailer drawn by a car driven by Gerald J. Savoie of Munising. Wickstrom was injured and brought to Gladstone for treatment by a physician.

Joseph Hoholik, 51, Milwaukee, charged by state police with driving while intoxicated, posted a bond for his appearance later in court.

Alvin Gagnon, 22, of Gladstone, also was arrested for driving while his operator's license was suspended. Today in Justice Ranguette's court he paid a fine of $10 and costs.

GRATEFUL RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

"How grateful I am for having heard about ALL-BRAN! Believe me, I was constipated for years. Eating this wonderful cereal for breakfast keeps me regular." Cerebral Hemorrhage Causes Death

Mrs. Henry Dausey, 76, died at 1:45 this morning at St. Francis hospital. Mrs. Dausey suffered a cerebral hemorrhage at the home of her son, Floyd Dausey, 606 North Ninth street, Gladstone, Sunday at 12:30 p. m.

She was born August 20, 1874 in Quebec, Canada and has been making her home in Iron Mountain the past six years. Mrs. Dausey came to Ogonitz, Mich., from Canada when she was 10 years old. She was married at Ogonitz to Henry Dausey. The couple moved to Rapid River where they resided 40 years. Mr. Dausey died in 1940.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Wesley Noel of Kingsford, and one son, Floyd Dausey of Gladstone, five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Kelley funeral home beginning Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m., at the funeral home. Rev. Clifford Peterson will officiate. Burial will be in Rapid River cemetery.

Five Escanabans Leave For Navy Physical Exams

Five Escanaba young men left Sunday for Minneapolis, Minn., where they will report for physical examinations for entrance into the U. S. Naval service.

They were Gerald Swille, 115 North 20th street; John Copeland, 211 South 10th street; Leo Mikiewicz, 306 1/2 Stephenson avenue, Harold Weber, 1314 Second avenue south; and Thomas H. Rice, 2403 Ludington street.

They enlisted earlier at Marquette, and will be assigned to the Great Lakes Naval Training Center after passing their physicals.

Liquor and Beer Vendors to Meet Sept. 19 at Soo

The sixth annual fall convention of the Upper Peninsula Liquor and Beer vendors association will be held Sept. 19 and 20 at Sault Ste. Marie, with Harold Kinney of the Soo as general chairman.

Convention speakers will include John J. Keagan, chairman of the state liquor control commission, and Al Gross of the commission's enforcement division.

Among the members on the convention committee is William King of Escanaba.

U. P. Industries Asked To Submit Information

How many persons could you employ without any further investment in machinery if you were on maximum production? What items do you now manufacture and what items have you manufactured in the past? Presently, what are your two major problems? Would you need aid in securing outlets for your products? Would you welcome help in arranging your shop so it would have the most efficient production procedure? Would you welcome information on the lowest cost of packaging, shipping and transportation? Would you be interested in bidding for government contracts?

These are only some of the questions asked in a questionnaire that is being sent by the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau to every industry—small and large—in the Upper Peninsula.

More Jobs Sought

It is the first step in the Bureau's Industrial Action committee program to assist already-established manufacturing plants in getting more orders, realize greater profits and provide more employment.

The information obtained from the returned questionnaires will be turned over to the Michigan Department of Economic Development, the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission, the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau and its Industrial Action committee.

PROMOTED—Guy W. Knutson has been appointed from assistant to general freight agent of the Escanaba and Lake Superior railroad, General Manager E. Christensen announced today. Knutson entered the employ of the E&LS in September, 1923. Arthur M. Pearson, who transferred from the Milwaukee Road as dispatcher in July, 1944, has been appointed car accountant.

U. P. Industries Asked To Submit Information

How many persons could you employ without any further investment in machinery if you were on maximum production? What items do you now manufacture and what items have you manufactured in the past? Presently, what are your two major problems? Would you need aid in securing outlets for your products? Would you welcome help in arranging your shop so it would have the most efficient production procedure? Would you welcome information on the lowest cost of packaging, shipping and transportation? Would you be interested in bidding for government contracts?

These are only some of the questions asked in a questionnaire that is being sent by the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau to every industry—small and large—in the Upper Peninsula.

More Jobs Sought

It is the first step in the Bureau's Industrial Action committee program to assist already-established manufacturing plants in getting more orders, realize greater profits and provide more employment.

The information obtained from the returned questionnaires will be turned over to the Michigan Department of Economic Development, the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission, the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau and its Industrial Action committee.

Industries indicating that they would welcome technical advice will be visited by consultants in the fields of industrial marketing, accounting and engineering, who will help them in working out solutions to their problems. The services of experts from the Michigan College of Mining and Technology, University of Michigan, Michigan State College and other agencies will be enlisted for these purposes.

Contacts with these industries will be made by Aarne Ervast of Laurium, Upper Peninsula field representative of the Michigan Department of Economic Development, and Albert C. Gazvoda of Hancock, industrial contact man of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission.

Suggested by Polich

Circulation of the questionnaire was suggested by George Polich of Crystal Falls, who as manufacturer's agent for a score of small woodworking and metal industries, has become well acquainted with the Upper Peninsula industrial problem. Polich is also a member of the Bureau's Industrial Action committee.

"Our first step is to find out the ailments of existing industries," Polich says. "I believe that we will find that the weaknesses will be in the ability of management to properly figure his production costs, and also the lack of knowledge as to how to set up production so as to meet competition. These small manufacturers need the advice of experienced men in the various phases of manufacturing."

Upper Peninsula manufacturers are urged to fill out the questionnaires and mail them as soon as possible to the Industrial Action committee, Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, Marquette, Michigan.

Gin, Gun, Lumber And Pipe Stolen

A case of gin, an automatic pistol, 120 pieces of 2x4 lumber and five pieces of four-inch pipe were stolen over the weekend, police reports show.

Five minor youths broke into the Clairmont transfer garage and stole a case of gin and a case of candy, and later two other youths became intoxicated from the gin, police officers said this morning. All will be referred to juvenile court.

One of the youths, police state, is technically an inmate of the state hospital at Newberry but is at home because there is no room for him in the hospital.

A 9mm Browning automatic pistol was stolen from the Herman A. Mielke residence at 501 North 2nd street by someone who entered the house with a skeleton key. Mielke has reported to city police. The gun has been missing since Thursday night.

The 2x4, 16 and 14-foot in length, was stolen from a C. & N. W. car in the repair yards sometime since Monday morning, the division engineer's office reported to police this morning. About 120 pieces were taken. Police have taken prints of tire tracks near the railroad car and are investigating.

The pipe lines, four 21 feet long and one 10 feet long, were stolen from the state highway department paint shop here.

Three Fires Occur Over Weekend; Unit Answers 6 Calls

Escanaba firemen extinguished three fires in the city over the Labor Day weekend and answered a total of six calls.

Three false alarms were turned into the station, two from an alarm box at Third avenue south and South 17th street and one from the 1700 block of Eighth avenue south.

A grease pan fire at the Harold Groos home, 421 Ogden avenue, at 3 p. m., Sunday burned curtains and a window shade and scorched paint on cabinets and a window, firemen report. In another house fire, presumably started by a cigarette, a small rug and a Inclesum were burned in the Adeline Pare residence, 1212 North 16th street, about 9 p. m., Sunday.

The third fire occurred in a car owned by Chester Siko of Bark River, near the Reiss dock. Blankets and some oil in the rear of the car were damaged by the fire, believed to have been started from a cigarette.

MSC Foreign Students From 12 Countries To Arrive Here Thursday

Twenty Michigan State College foreign students from 12 countries will arrive in Delta county Thursday evening for the start of their "adventure in world understanding" tour of the Upper Peninsula.

They will be in Delta county for three nights and two days, from Thursday evening through Sunday afternoon.

Purpose of the tour is to give the foreign students an opportunity to observe first-hand the way in which Americans live. In this way they will become better acquainted with the American people, and the Americans with them. Through personal contact differences in race, religion and nation will be minimized and better understanding—"an adventure in world understanding"—will result to the benefit of the students and the citizens of this country.

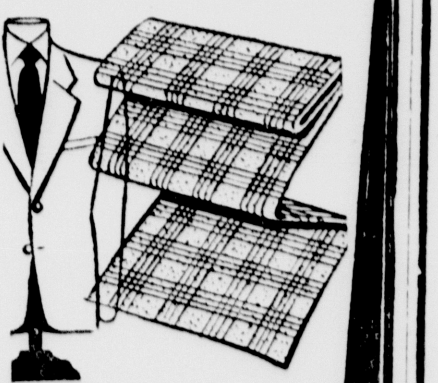

Guests in Homes. Six of the twenty students will be in Escanaba, five in Gladstone, and three each in Rock, Rapid River and Bark River. Arrangements are being made for the students to be housed in private homes in each of the communities.

J. L. Heirman, county agricultural agent, Hagle Quarnstrom, county school superintendent, and school officials from each of the five districts are arranging for the students' stay in Delta county.

Edward Meyers, Mrs. Fred Mott, Mrs. Ray Matt, Mrs. Mary Holnacki, Mrs. Joseph Michel, Mrs. H. Mayrand, Mrs. Homer Seymour, Mrs. Henry Seymour, Mrs. Henry Nelson, Mrs. Eli Cousineau, Mrs. Anna Bartosz, Mrs. Joseph Chénier and Mrs. D. Lavigne.

Out-of-town relatives attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lavigne, Iron Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lavigne, Detroit; Mary Jane Lavigne, Chicago; Mrs. Harry Lickman, Carney; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fish, Detroit; Peter Lavigne, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lavigne and Robert Lavigne, Escanaba; Mrs. Virginia McCauley, Emmett McCauley, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lavigne, and Lawrence Lavigne, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richards, J. P. Richards and Ernest Richards of Brampton.

Upper Peninsula Backs Straits Bridge Project, Says Bishop

THE Upper Peninsula is wholeheartedly in support of the proposal to build a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac.

This was the gist of the reply made by George E. Bishop, secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, to an article in The Detroit magazine, which charged that this region was showing "inertia and lack of enthusiasm" for the project.

In his answer to the Detroit Board of Commerce publication, Bishop pointed out that the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau first went on record in 1922 as advocating the spanning of the Straits.

Bishop erred somewhat in his inference that the Upper Peninsula was unanimous in its approval of the Straits of Mackinac project. He did not count on George C. Newton, civil engineer of Iron Mountain, who last week had a lengthy statement on the question published in the Iron Mountain News.

Newton made the statement to refute some of the claims made by William J. Cochran, a fellow citizen who is a member of the Mackinac Straits Bridge Authority. Newton contends that the limestone structure under the Straits is too weak to support the weight of a huge bridge. He presents other arguments against the project.

Newton has a right to his opinions, of course. He may be right or he may be wrong.

The Mackinac Straits Bridge Authority has engaged the services of three of the most eminent engineers in the country as consultants. They will make careful studies of the project and will determine whether the bridge is feasible from engineering and financial standpoints.

We shall wait and see what they report.

Ownership Of Formosa Poses Old Problem

ALL kinds of people have been telling America for months to get up on her haunches and holler back at Russia. We've been doing more of it lately, but far from enough.

Formosa is a good example. Russia and Red China scream that we're "invading" Chinese territory by having our Seventh Fleet patrol the waters between the island and the mainland.

We say we're not invading, but we allow the most important fact, in the whole situation to get buried under a lot of confusing blather. The fact is this:

Under international law Formosa doesn't belong to China at all—either to the Communist government or to Chiang Kai-shek. In 1895, after the Sino-Japanese war, the island was ceded by a defeated China to Japan, which held it continuously until the end of World War II.

From the moment of Japan's surrender, Formosa became conquered enemy territory. Since it had been formally yielded by China in the 1895 treaty, it did not automatically revert to the control of China as would land gained during war by force of arms.

The final status of conquered enemy soil is settled only in peace treaties or by general international agreement. Since there is as yet no Japanese peace treaty and no step has been taken to have the United Nations handle the issue, Formosa legally still belongs to Japan. And Japan is a nation occupied by the victorious Allies.

There's one complication. In wartime conferences at Cairo and Yalta, the U. S. promised Chiang Kai-shek he could have Formosa back when Japan was licked. On the strength of that, he moved in without waiting for a peace treaty. But that doesn't alter the fact that his control has no real status under international law.

If we choose to modify or repudiate our pledge to Chiang, he may complain but he has no basis for appeal. By ordering our fleet to police the seas off Formosa, this is in effect exactly what we've done. As the chief occupying power in Japan, we could go further (though we don't intend to) and move land forces onto Formosa. We'd be infringing nobody's legal rights.

Those are the cold facts, the true answer to Moscow's frenzied shouts that we're violating Chinese "sovereignty" in Formosa. China has no sovereignty there. She hasn't had since 1895.

How Formosa shall be disposed of ultimately is something else. If resistance by Russia and Red China makes a fair peace treaty settlement impossible, the question should fall to the UN. Who knows? Formosa might even be given to the Formosans.

LET'S KEEP OUR SHIRTS ON

(Boston Globe)

A military writer of the London Daily Herald praises the American soldier in the Korean conflict and makes comments regarding the GI of World War II that are of interest at this point.

The American soldier, he writes, "is teaching the free world a lesson. It is this: At the flash points of the world the only useful guards are fully trained, long service troops with their full battle equipment and not encumbered with boys still in training. It is GI Joe's misfortune to have to demonstrate this in the muddy foxholes and rice fields of Korea."

Of the World War II American soldier, the expert writes:

GI Joe tended to be overhasty when things seemed good, excessively depressed when they went wrong. He left good positions, temporary advantages and got shot up in the open. He tackled tanks with light weapons at too long range. When he was forced to retreat he tended to voice his feelings forcibly and go back too far."

GI Joe is very much like the folks at home. It is foolish to let the events of any particular moment cause us overoptimism or despair. Let's keep our shirts on.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Harry Truman's experience of going broke as a haberdasher and paying off his debts for 20 years now influences his decisions as president of the United States. This was revealed at a White House conference called to discuss the defense of Alaska—the place which any Russian invasion might hit first.

Military advisers were trying to get the president to O. K. a plan for public housing and utilities in Alaska to be paid for over a 35-year period. Housing for troops in the bitter cold winters happens to be what Alaska needs most.

Mr. Truman listened carefully and then said: "No, I'm not going to approve that. I spent 20 years of my life with a heavy debt hanging over my head, and I'm not going to burden the people of Alaska with that kind of worry. Every year I paid $1,000 on the debt when my clothing store went under. It wasn't all paid until the year I was nominated for vice president."

Philosophically, Mr. Truman continued: "I don't want my children or children's children paying off the debts for mistakes I could make in the White House. That's why I don't want to commit our armed forces or resources to any such long-range plans as the Russians seem up to."

CABINET FEUD GETS HOTTER

One of President Truman's most intimate associates was walking out of the White House grounds when a black limousine stopped and a voice said: "Want a lift?"

It was the likeable, controversial secretary of defense, Louis Johnson. Truman's friend got in the car, and after some conversation, Louey put his hand on the friend's knee and said:

"We've got to get Acheson out of the cabinet. You can help me. You can talk to the president about it whereas I can't. Let's pitch in and put this across."

Truman's close friend was noncommittal. He made no promises. But the incident illustrates the white heat which the Acheson-Johnson feud has reached. There have been cabinet feuds in many previous administrations such as that between Jesse Jones and Vice President Wallace in Roosevelt's day. But seldom has there been such open sniping at a fellow cabinet member as the current attack of Louey Johnson against Dean Acheson.

"OFFICIAL" CABINET PEACE

Senators who sat in the closed-door session of the appropriations committee listening to the testimony of Secretaries Acheson and Johnson last week never would have dreamed there was any animosity between them. Their words almost dripped soothing syrup. On the other hand, several senators got into a row with the two cabinet members and also between themselves.

Everyone present was sworn to secrecy; but here is what happened:

Senator Homer Ferguson, fiery, white-maned Michigan Republican did most of the sniping at Acheson and Johnson, asking needle-pointed questions in an attempt to rouse them against each other. After failing to provoke the two cabinet officers into an open quarrel, Ferguson demanded bluntly whether Johnson "had always agreed" with Acheson's policies.

"It isn't a question of agreeing," replied the secretary of defense. He explained that both are members of the national security council, which thrashes out security problems. All members express their opinions freely, then the president makes the final decision.

"Since I have been on the job, I have followed straight through the policies of the commander in chief," added Johnson. Then he turned to Acheson and asked: "Isn't that true, Dean?"

"That is correct," the secretary of state nodded.

Under Ferguson's persistent heckling, however, Johnson offered to outline his disagreements with Acheson over Formosa if it could be kept out of the official record. But this was turned down by the senators.

SOME "N" WORDS TO WATCH

Americans generally have stoutly resisted the elderly dictionaries' pronunciation "naip" for the word nape. Also, Americans ignore blithely the fact that "the nape of the neck" is redundant, since nape means "the back of the neck."

The prevailing American pronunciation of nape is: nap. Meriam Webster's states that nap is regarded by many as dialectal. Nevertheless, Kenyon and Scott, the American College Dictionary, and Thorndike Century list the pronunciation nap as second choice, without comment.

The National Socialist German Worker's party was founded in 1919, and headed by Hitler from 1921.

The word Nazi is pronounced in German: NAHT-see. The German name of the party is: Nationalsozialistische Partei, pronounced: NAHT-see-aw-NAHL-zoh-see, uh-LISS-uh-shuh. The word Nazi, then, is a phonetic representation of the first two syllables of National, since the German "z" and "t" in -tion are pronounced alike, as ts.

In Standard American Nazi is: NAHT-see; or: NAT-see. In England the pronunciation NAZZ-ee is widespread.

Nazism is: NAHT-siz'm; or: NAT-siz'm. Another spelling is Nazismus, pronounced: NAHT-see-iz'm; or: NAT-see-iz'm.

Heard on a radio serial "NESS-uh-sree" for the word necessary. The announcer's use of the British telescoping "NESS-ur-sree" is hard to explain, for, during the broadcast in question, he did not give the British twist to other -ary words such as ordinary. At any rate, his "NESS-uh-sree" was a decided spotlight in an otherwise good, Standard American speech pattern. It left me with the vaguely annoyed feeling, "Now why did he say that?"

The -ary and -ery words, in American usage, should not be telescoped or smothered. Necessary, for example, should be given all its four syllables, thus: NESS-uh-SEH-ree.

Air Force Awaits Big Offensive To Show What It Really Can Do

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — "Wait until UN forces start the big offensive back up the Korean peninsula, then you'll see what air power can really do to enemy troops."

That's the claim of top Pentagon Air Force officers. It's based on the theory that air power is a better offensive weapon than a defensive one.

In its defensive role, according to a top Air Force spokesman, UN planes have been running out of targets frequently in the past few weeks. This is true of "interdiction" targets, bridges, roads, supply lines and convoys behind the front, as well as strategic targets, factories, oil refineries and railroad centers.

It has also been true of close support targets — enemy troops and tanks. North Korean forces have practically abandoned any attempt to move during the day because of the threat of UN planes. They try to keep holed up and hidden during the days. This makes it tough to attack them from the air. And although night air operations have been fairly successful, it remains for the big UN counteroffensive to give the Air Force its biggest field day.

An Air Force expert explains that when troops are retreating as it is predicted North Korean forces will be doing soon, there is no chance to wait until night to move. Fleeing troops provide the best possible targets for aircraft. Experience has shown that enemy casualties skyrocket, all equipment has to be abandoned and orderly withdrawals are impossible.

The great number of bridges which have been destroyed and the railroad trackage which has been bombed out of existence will also make destruction of retreating forces a turkey shoot for UN pilots. In effect the UN Air Force makes a retreat of North Korean forces back above the 38th Parallel almost impossible. Their bridges have been destroyed behind them.

A big factor in this whole problem, however, is the reported existence of a North Korean air force, with 300 first line planes, based in Manchuria. When it will be thrown into the action is the big question.

As far as purely strategic targets go, the job has been pretty well accomplished. Korea wasn't much of an industrial country to start with. And what little industry is now left, an Army spokesman says, is being moved back into Manchuria. The following official Air Force report of one small raid on a steel plant in Seishin gives an idea of the damage that has been done:

"The bombers over the Iron works dropped their bombs and great balls of fire about 500 to 1000 feet in diameter appeared, surrounded by thick black smoke which shot up in columns 3000 to 5000 feet high. This occurred when the first bomb hit the target. A series of large fires, towering flames and smoke were visible during the entire bombing on the plant."

When one raid does that it's not hard to imagine what more than 5000 sorties have done.

Meanwhile, while waiting for the big UN offensive, the U. S. Air Force isn't sitting on the ground. In addition to continual sorties and reconnaissance missions it has been developing some new programs. The following report from the Far East Air Force explains one:

"From Air Force negatives the Army Engineers of the 6th Topographical Battalion are reproducing charts with Army grid lines superimposed. These grid lines dividing areas into small sectors are identical with the markings on ground force terrain maps. Ground commanders needing air support need only transmit the necessary grid lines marking the location, and bombing and strafing of the target is forthcoming."

What is called "The Red Bull Highway of the Sky," the air supply into Korea, is also an active operation. As of the middle of August 6000 passengers had been flown from Japan to Korea as well as 10,000,000 pounds of war materials.

The Mac Arthur Case

The fact that President Truman tried to suppress the statement of General Douglas MacArthur to the V.F.W. convention focused the attention of many people away from the contents of the message and toward the suppression action taken by the President.

If there is any one American citizen who has knowledge of the Orient it is General MacArthur and certainly his views should receive the greatest consideration. It is difficult to understand why an attempt was made to suppress the statement. President Truman himself has declared that the United States Navy will defend Formosa against invasion and attack by Communist China.

General MacArthur's statement emphasizes the importance of Formosa to the entire defense of the Orient which is also the key to our own national security. The General cites that if Formosa should fall into the hands of the enemy, the enemy's air effort could be increased 100 percent. It would seriously jeopardize our position in the Philippines as well as in Japan. Apparently the order to suppress the statement came because of an inference in the General's statement that the policy of the State Department has not been realistic. Undoubtedly, Secretary of State Acheson, who advised the President to suppress the message, was embarrassed by the following portion of the message:

"Nothing could be more fallacious than the threadbare argument by those who advocate appeasement and defeatism in the Pacific that if we defend Formosa we alienate continental Asia. Those who speak thus do not understand the Orient. They do not grasp that it is in the pattern of Oriental psychology to respect and follow aggressive, resolute and dynamic leadership—to quickly turn from a leadership characterized by timidity or vacillation — and they underestimate the Oriental mentality."

This, of course, was a direct slap at the Administration's Far East policy as directed by Dean Acheson.

Certainly the American people in these critical times should be permitted to have the best thinking of the man who is best qualified to speak on Far East policy as it affects our national security.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

INFORMATION PLEASE—John I. Belaire of Manistique, often called the "father" of the Big Spring, has been called upon to supply information on early-day logging railroads.

The information is sought by Roy W. Carlson, Auburn, Ind., of the American Association for Railroads and Locomotives. It is a non-profit private organization dedicated to assembling and preserving photographs and information about American railroads.

In particular, Carlson wants information about the following lumbering railroads that he believes operated in the eastern section of the U. P. in the early days: The Lake Michigan & Western railroad, the Escanaba Lumber company railroad, and the Delta Lumber company railroad.

Know anything about the subject? If you do, write direct to Roy W. Carlson, Auburn, Ind. Perhaps he will send you a locomotive or a brand new railroad tie.

THE NEW METHOD—You may have noted the increasing number of roadside vegetable and fruit stands in this community within the past few years. But a friend of mine returning from an Eastern trip says you haven't seen anything yet.

Out there the roadside stands really extend out into the country and the farmers operate them for their own profit. They are eliminating the middle man and collecting full sales profit direct from the consumer.

Under regular channels of trade the average farmer is reported to receive only a little more than half the consumer's dollar; but the roadside direct-to-you sale often brings him the full 100 cents.

We pointed out to our friend that Escanaba has had a farm market built and maintained by the city without cost to the farmer—and no complaints from the retailers. They know that whatever the source of farm income the friendly town and satisfied customer is still the essence of good business.

HELPING OUT—This is the time when teachers are making last-minute preparations for the beginning of the school year.

One of these teachers, who stopped in at the Daily Press news room Saturday afternoon, is Mrs. Lydia Anunson of Rapid River, who teaches kindergarten at Nahma. She was looking for some materials for her room—materials of the same kind she obtained last year.

She wanted some long pieces of paper, the letter-width kind that feeds through the typewriter machines. L. A. "Dan" Danielson, wire editor, found some from the ends of rolls no longer usable. Mrs. Anunson explained that she uses the long pieces of paper on which to write numerals for her beginners, who in this way learn their numbers much easier.

Mrs. Anunson also received the empty cardboard boxes in which the typewriter paper is shipped. The boxes have their sides neatly cut out. Mrs. Anunson has the boys in manual training put legs on the boxes and then the kindergarten children make them into doll beds as a project for the room.

"The children enjoy doing things like that," said Mrs. Anunson. "Anything for the cause of education," said Wire Editor Dan.

FUTURE MILK MAN—Food Industries reports that non-frozen concentrated fresh milk is not only technically feasible, but it also offers great opportunity to reduce shipping costs.

A little of concentrated milk would make a quart after the consumer added water. The article adds that it's an even bet that nearly all fluid foods eventually will be concentrated.

We doubt very much, however, that the milk man of the future with his few ounces of concentrated milk will do a thriving business in the Michigan-Wisconsin dairy states. People have come to accept the deliveries of whole milk in bottles and the average housewife will hesitate in using something into which she must stir some water.

Besides, no dried or concentrated milk has ever been made that retained the good flavor of fresh whole milk.

Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO

Moscow—The Soviet Union called youths of 18, 19 and 20 today for duty with the colors beginning the middle of September to guard the nation at a time of "imperialist war" and "capitalist encirclement."

Larsing—A portrait of the late Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald, who died in office March 16, 1939, is to be placed in a corridor of the capitol building today, near the front door of the executive office. The portrait was financed by public subscription.

Escanaba — Emil Petersen, 1906 First avenue south, was elected to the board of trustees of the Danish Brotherhood society of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan and Mrs. Anna Petersen, 327 South 12th street, was named trustee of the Danish Sisterhood society at the same meeting, held in Menominee over Labor Day at the Lloyd Goodfellowship club hall.

20 YEARS AGO

Manistique — Arthur Duchene, whose leg was broken when he was struck by a Soo Line passenger train Wednesday afternoon, was reported to be improving yesterday. Mr. Duchene sustained bruises on his body and head.

Gladstone—The new Minnesota avenue pavement will be completely open by Saturday, City Manager F. R. Buchner stated yesterday. Workmen are now removing the earthen covering from the concrete and washing down and patching will be completed in time to allow the removal of barriers and the resumption of traffic the full length, late this week.

Escanaba — Captain Charles McCauley, of Milwaukee, formerly of this city, spent the weekend with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Jensen, First avenue south.

Former Communists Get Too Much Attention

THIS thing of breaking with the Communist party has become quite a production. The latest to give it the Cecil B. DeMille touch is Lee Pressman, former general counsel of the CIO.

Pressman told the House un-American Activities Committee he belonged to a Communist party cell in 1934, left the party after a year but maintained an "ideological link" until just a short time ago. The Red invasion of South Korea led him finally to sever this tie, which he did by resigning from the Communist-run Labor party Aug. 10.

Rep. Richard M. Nixon, California Republican on the committee, asked Pressman why it took him from June 25, the invasion date, to Aug. 10 to make up his mind. Replied Pressman:

"My decision was taken as result of profound conviction. I had discussed this for at least a year with some close friends. . . . It took time to reach a conclusion like this."

Now of course it's every individual's own business how and when he decides on the course his life should take. It's not for any other citizen to say how fast or how slow he should arrive at the crucial decisions.

But there's an implication in Pressman's remarks, and it's noticeable in the attitude of other Communist deserters, that a Communist or Red sympathizer somehow gives deeper thought to these basic questions than other people do.

When a Red decides not to be a Red any more, it's always after the most exhaustive soul-searching. You get the idea he is reluctantly leaving a cause he suspects may still be noble despite disquieting evidence to the contrary. He acts like a man who is leaving a humanitarian organization because the treasurer was caught stealing money.

Actually these little personal dramas of people like Pressman are acted out to boost the self-importance of the actors. They seem to find it necessary to represent themselves as heavy thinkers bearing the great weight of the world's problems on their minds. No decision can be taken without consulting the mysterious oracle which guides their profound mental gyrations.

Could anything be more laughable? At worst these people have purposely blinded themselves to the brutal truth about communism in practice—facts long established and constantly re-emphasized.

At best they are well meaning but misguided, deluded individuals who lack the power to understand that Communism and tyranny are the same thing.

In neither instance is there anything profound about their grasp of the realities. Quite the reverse. These deserters from Communism have been living in a realm of paper-thin dreams. Yet they want us to believe it requires a long, painful exercise of high intellect to realize the transparency of their fantasy.

Big Parade

By Gordon Martin

You may like to sing the glory of the Easter promenade, or the military manner of an Army on parade. But no line of march can top the one September brings each year, when the walks are filled with youngsters and the text-books reappear. No parade can be more eloquent of democratic rule, than the one in which the country's kids are going back to school.

Going back to take advantage of an education free, and with equal opportunity for all a guarantee; going back to friendships old and making new ones long the way, while respecting rights of others at their work and in their play; going back in quest of knowledge and a driving will to learn, going back to build a nation and a place in life to earn.

Yes, you watch them and you know that Young America is good, and you're glad the same parade is on in every neighborhood. You give thanks because the march of fresh-faced kids will never cease—that its purpose isn't one of war but one of friendly peace. And you realize the public school must have an untold worth, as the first great hope democracy can have upon the earth.

In Ugly Korea War, GI Is Longing For Pretty, Neat Japan

By DON WHITEHEAD
(For Hal Boyle)

With American Troops in Korea — (AP)—In World War II, the U. S. soldier yearned to return home to New York or Kansas or Texas—wherever his home might be. But in this war the GIs also are homesick for Japan.

Most of the troops were called from occupation duties in Hirohito's island empire to battle North Korean Communists. Most of them had been in Tokyo or Yokohama for one, two or three years.

Liked Girls, Too

It wasn't like home. But the boys learned to like Japan. They liked the Japanese girls, too, and many of them fell in love with an almond-eyed beauty. There were weekend outings in the mountains and sightseeing trips through the countryside.

They suddenly they were pulled out of their new life into a strange country and a strange war. The things they see in Korea—the poverty and filth and primitive living conditions—bring nostalgic memories of the neatness and beauty of Japan.

Estate Of R. E. Olds Estimated $4,500,000

LANSING—(AP)—The personal estate of the late R. E. Olds, who founded both Oldsmobile and Reo motor firms, has been unofficially estimated at $4,500,000.

The will of the 86-year-old auto pioneer, who died last Saturday, has not been filed for probate, but reports indicated the $4,500,000 figure. Most of the money, it is said, will go to the Ransom Fidelity Corp., Olds' Foundation.

The total wealth of the motor magnate has been estimated at around $60,000,000. However he divided his holdings between his two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Olds Anderson and Mrs. C. S. Rowe, some time ago.

The will is said to include a bequest of $80,000 for Kalamazoo college, $25,000 for Hillsdale college, and $100,000 for the retired ministers' home at Daytona Beach, Fla.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

PERKINS—In a ceremony performed by the Very Rev. A. C. Coignard of St. Joseph's church, Perkins, Saturday morning, September 2, at 10, Miss Donna Mae Gudwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gudwer of Perkins became the bride of David Carl Soderman, Gladstone Route One. Mr. Soderman's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soderman.

In the bridal party were Carol Jean Gudwer, the bride's sister, who was her maid of honor, Mrs. Stephan Stephani, sister of the bridegroom, who was bridesmaid, Robert Gudwer, best man, and Gilbert Larson who ushered.

White Slipper Satin

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin, trimmed with lace and styled with a full train, and a veil of illusion caught to a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white gladioli and daisies with white satin streamers. The maid of honor wore pale blue satin and the bridesmaid, pink net over taffeta. Their headresses were matching coronets and their colonial bouquets were formed of pink and white gladioli and daisies with streamers to harmonize with their gowns.

A teal blue street length dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses and gladioli was selected by Mrs. Gudwer for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Soderman wore navy blue with dark accessories and a corsage of gladioli and red roses.

The wedding dinner for 300 guests was served at the home of the bride's parents. Centering the floral decorations was a four-tiered wedding cake topped with a tiny bride and bridegroom. The newlyweds who will live in Gladstone Route One left for Milwaukee, Chicago and Rockford, Ill., for their wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a black and white pin-check suit with a red blouse and black accessories and a corsage of roses and gladioli.

Frank Schnese and Sally Davis Married Sunday

Miss Sally Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Emery Davis of Elkhart, Ind., and Frank Schnese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Schnese, 219 South 9th street, city, were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian church in Elkhart on Sunday, August 27, at 4:30 o'clock. Rev. John Meengs of the First Presbyterian church of Mishawaka, Ind., performed the nuptials.

White gladioli interspersed with ferns and lighted candles decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of traditional white satin, styled with a full court train, long pointed sleeves with Chantilly lace forming the Victorian collar, vest and peplum. A cap of matching satin and lace, studded with seed pearls held her veil of French imported illusion in place. She carried a white prayer book and a bouquet of pale pink sweetheart roses and fleur de Amour.

Miss Dorothy Jenner, the maid of honor, was gowned in maize taffeta with a white frosted organically overskirt and matching cape with a wide sash of maize taffeta. She wore a floral head-dress of light blue daisies and yellow pom poms, and carried a pineapple arrangement of light blue maroon daisies. The bridesmaids, Miss Marilyn Mathewson, Grosse Point, Mich., and Miss Marian DuMont, East Grand Rapids, Mich., wore identical gowns of light blue taffeta styled like that of the maid of honor with yellow daisies and pom poms in their hair and carried colonial bouquets of yellow gladioli.

Michael Creten, city, attended the groom as best man. Ushers were John Borneman, Elkhart, Robert Whitney, Waukegan, Ill., Larry Schneider, Benton Harbor, Mich., and Jerry MacKenzie, Milwaukee, Wis.

The bride's mother was dressed in a dark brown taffeta with dark

Lillian Sigan Becomes Bride of Dr. L. Cecil

Pastel tinted gladioli and lighted candelabra decorated the altar of the First Lutheran church on Saturday for the marriage of Miss Lillian Sigan, daughter of Nick Sigan, 1224 Minnesota avenue and Dr. Lee McFarland Cecil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Cecil, Duluth, Minnesota. Rev. Clifford Peterson performed the ceremony at 2 o'clock.

A prelude of organ music was played by Bob Kee, F. A. G. O., as the guests were assembling. The numbers included, the traditional wedding marches, "Liebestraum" by Liszt, and Schubert's "Ave Maria." As the bridal couple knelt for the final blessing, Malot's, "Lord's Prayer."

A white satin floor length gown fashioned with a tiny lace Peter Pan collar was worn by the bride. Her short veil of illusion was held in place by a satin Juliet cap. She carried a white Bible topped by a single white orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Betty Sigan, sister of the bride was gowned in a forest green velvet floor length model with a Bertha collar. She wore a matching green velvet Juliet cap and carried an adornment bouquet of yellow roses.

George Wotr Sallade of Ann Arbor, Mich., was the best man and ushering were Howard and Jack Sigan, brothers of the bride, and William Kimbrough of Birmingham, Mich.

The groom's mother chose a blue street length dress with matching accessories. She wore an orchid pinned to her shoulder. A champagne reception was held at the bride's parental home following the ceremony. Bouquets of American beauty roses in tall standards were placed throughout the rooms. The bride cake centered the serving table, was topped by a wreath of garnet roses.

The newlyweds are on a two weeks motor trip to Colorado. Following the ceremony, the bride wore a black velvet suit with a white satin, black velvet shoes, and white gloves, with a white orchid corsage.

Upon their return they will reside in Ann Arbor, Mich., where Dr. Lee will be assistant resident at the University hospital.

Out of town guests attending were, Mr. and Mrs. George Sallade, Ann Arbor, Mich., William Kimbrough, Birmingham, Mich., and Mrs. Charles L. Cecil, Duluth, Minn.

June Madden is September Bride of Robert Larson

Sheer white nylon over white taffeta was worn by Miss June J. Madden for her marriage on Friday to Robert Larson. The bride's street length gown was styled with a tight bodice, V-neck line, double scalloped collar and full skirt. A white starched braid hat and white slippers completed her ensemble. She carried a bridal bouquet of white gladioli and yellow roses. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, the groom's gift.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Sigmond Bierdz of Kenosha, Wis., was her only attendant. Her gown of light blue eyelid embroidered organza was fashioned with a V-neckline with a single scalloped collar and full skirt, and with it, she wore a white starched braid hat and white slippers. She carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Douglas Madden, brother of the bride, was the best man. Gilbert Larson, the groom's brother and Morris Siebert, escorted the guests to their pews.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Madden, 1115 Michigan avenue, city, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larson of Rock, Mich.

The nuptials were performed at 8 o'clock on Friday evening in the Trinity Episcopal church, with Rev. James G. Ward, pastor of the St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Escanaba.

Brass candelabrum, white candles and assorted garden flowers decorated the church altar for the ceremony with white baskets of mixed gladioli being placed on the altar stairs. White hydrangeas with a green backdrop marked the church pews.

Traditional wedding music was played by Miss Jean Miller, close friend of the bride. Charles Larson, brother of the groom, sang "Because" and "Oh Promise Me."

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Madden chose a white and black summer sheer print dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a light green dress with black accessories and her corsage consisted of yellow roses.

Mixed cut flowers in pastel hues decorated the bride's parental home for the reception which was held immediately after the ceremony. White gladioli with pink and white sweetpeas decorated the dining room and table, which was centered with the three tiered wedding cake and lighted tapers were placed at either side. Mrs. Gilbert Larson and Miss Mary Willong served the guests.

A yellow print Bemberg sheer with dark brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses was worn by the bride for her wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. Upon their return the bride and groom will reside at 1302 Lake Shore drive.

The bride is employed as a secretary by the State of Michigan in the U. P. office of the Michigan Crippled Children's Commission. The groom is a student at the Northern Michigan college of Education, Marquette, Mich.

den, Edmund Lanerete, August Brassick and Peter Schram.

Marriage Unites Earl McNair Jr., Milwaukee Girl

Miss Margaret Oppenorth, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Oppenorth, 2138 North 33rd St. Milwaukee, Wisconsin, became the bride of Earl McNair, Jr. of Milwaukee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNair, Sr., 715 Michigan Avenue at a nine o'clock ceremony performed by Rev. Leach at St. Ann's church in Milwaukee, August 12. Bright hued gladioli formed the altar decorations.

Gounod's "Ave Maria" was sung at the offertory of the nuptial high Mass.

The bride, who was attended by Miss Katherine Walsh of East Chicago, Ind., as maid of honor and Mrs. Pat Kirschening and Mary McNair as bridesmaids, was attired in a white nylon marquisette gown, styled with a fitted bodice and full skirt which extended into a long train. She wore a finger-tip length veil.

The bride's brides were attired in like gowns of nylon marquisette, the maid of honor wearing maize and the bridesmaids in orchid. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of pink roses and gladioli and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of yellow roses and gladioli. Jeanne Geiger, niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

Mrs. Oppenorth, mother of the bride was attired in a powder blue silk dress with rhinestone button trim and the mother of the groom wore a blue linen dress with a white flower design. Both mothers wore corsages of white roses and pink carnations.

A wedding breakfast for 45 guests was served at Moses Cafe and a dinner and reception where the young couple welcomed 400 guests was held later in the day.

Following a wedding trip to Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. McNair will make their home in Milwaukee at 2500 W. Fond du Lac Avenue.

The bride attended St. Anne's school and graduated from Washington High School. She is employed at the Nunn-Busch Shoe Co.

Three Mishaps Mar Week-end

Two Drivers
Issued Summons

Manistique's holiday week-end was marred by three highway accidents. Only one of the accidents, however, took place in the city, the other two occurring on US-2 near Blaney.

On Saturday afternoon, a car driven by Michael Wallace of Highland Park struck a car driven by Claude McFadden of Detroit. The mishap occurred near Blaney junction when the car driven by McFadden attempted a U turn on the highway in the path of the advancing car. No one was injured in the accident, but McFadden was issued a summons by the state police for failing to have his car under control.

At 10:40 p. m. on Saturday night a car driven by Paul Nelson, 26, of Manistique struck the rear of a car driven by William Gentz, 63, also of Manistique. The mishap occurred near the Hiawatha cabins in Manistique. The drivers of both cars and three passengers of Nelson's car were injured and received treatment at Memorial hospital. Nelson received lacerations; Gentz received a shoulder injury; Chalmer LaFreniere, Frank Rydyk and Don Springer, passengers in the Nelson car, received minor injuries. The state police issued Nelson a summons charging him with reckless driving.

Wet pavement was blamed for an accident occurring at 8 o'clock Sunday morning on US-2 near Blaney junction. A car driven by Lillian Dagley of Flint left the road, injuring her and her son, James Dagley. They were both released from Memorial hospital following treatment for their injuries.

The injured were Robert R. Jackson, of Grosse Point Woods, suffering from cuts about face and possible fracture of his jaw; Miss Barbara Collins, Detroit, sprained ankle and bruises; Ronzo Taylor, Gernafsk, lacerations and abrasions; John Nelson, Blaney Park, possible chest injuries.

Taylor, driving a Plymouth coach on US-2, heading east, slowed down to make a left turn onto Highway 77. In doing so, the Plymouth driven by Jackson, crashed into him. Both cars were badly wrecked.

Taylor was given a summons by state police for failure to give right of way.

Blacktop For Highway US-2

Twenty-four Miles
Of Resurfacing

Plans have been completed and work begun on the blacktopping and resurfacing job to be applied on approximately 24 miles of highway US-2 in Schoolcraft county. Low bidders for the job were the Mid-America Construction company of Skokie, Ill., and the Thornton Construction company of Hancock.

Work was begun at Blaney last Wednesday, and it is expected that 10 days will be required to resurface the highway as far as Gulliver. When that stretch is completed, the machinery will be moved to Manistique, where the portion of the highway passing through the city proper will be blacktopped. Also slated for the blacktopping process is the section of US-2 from the west city limits to about one mile from the Delta county line.

While the blacktopping machinery is available in the city it is planned to resurface several of the local streets.

Social

Bridge Party

Mrs. Emmett McNamara was hostess at a bridge party at her home on Thursday evening. Prizes went to Mrs. R. D. Curley, first, Mrs. Victor Shuster and Mrs. Charles Sling, jr. Mrs. William McKenzie was the recipient of a traveling prize. A delicious lunch was served.

Baptist Youth Fellowship

The Senior Baptist Youth Fellowship held a re-organization meeting last Monday evening at the First Baptist church. Officers elected for the coming year were: President, Ann McLaughlin; vice-president, Billy Schobert; secretary, Mary Turpin; treasurer, Jean Swingle.

Pink and Blue Shower

A pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Ralph Ekstrom was given last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Lyle Smith. Hostesses were Mrs. Vernon Ekstrom, Mrs. Glen Pawley, Mrs. Walter Anderson and Mrs. Lyle Smith. The living room and dining room were beautifully decorated for the occasion. Canasta and buncos were played with prizes in Canasta going to Mrs. Omer Dybevik, high, and Mrs. Vern Dufour, low. In buncos prizes went to Mrs. Axel Ekstrom, high, and Mrs. John Stoor, low. Mrs. Richard Bjorkman won the door prize.

Police Arrest
Nahma Man
In Auto Theft

A Nahma man, George Paul, 27, has been arrested following his confession to the theft of a car belonging to Frank Rubick. The car was stolen in the early hours of Wednesday morning and was recovered on Thursday by the state police on old US-2 several miles west of Manistique. The only damage to the car was a flat tire.

Paul was picked up on suspicion by the State Police on Friday and denied any connection with the theft after questioning. However, after spending the night in the county jail, Paul readily admitted the theft and is being held for trial.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
In the Circuit Court for the County of Delta. In Chancery.

Orill LaBute and Grace LaBute, Plaintiffs, vs.

Clara Potvin, Robert Peacock, Abner Kirby, William O. Carpenter, Samuel M. Stephenson, Augustus A. Carpenter, Margaret L. Perry, Alice P. Alton, Florence P. Gordon, Annie M. Peacock, Mabel A. Brown, Archibute P. Holdsworth, Benjamin Casper, Kolman Casper, Louis Potvin, also known as Louis Putvin, James D. Dotisch, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, Defendants.

At a session of said Court held in the Courthouse at Escanaba, Michigan, this 6th day of July, A. D. 1950.

PRESSENT: Hon. Glenn W. Jackson, Circuit Judge.

On reading and filing the amendment of bill of complaint in said cause and the affidavit of Merrill L. Johnson from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that defendants Abner Kirby, William O. Carpenter, Samuel M. Stephenson and Augustus A. Carpenter and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, are proper and necessary parties defendant in the above entitled cause and

It further appearing that after diligent search and inquiry it cannot be ascertained and it is not known whether or not said defendants are living or dead or where they may reside, if living, and if dead, whether they have personal representatives or heirs living, or where they or any of them may reside, and further that the present whereabouts of said defendants are unknown, and that the names of the persons who are included therein without being named, but who are embraced therein under the title of unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, cannot be ascertained after diligent search and inquiry.

On motion of Johnson and Johnson, Attorneys for Plaintiffs, IT IS ORDERED, that said defendants and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, cause their appearance to be entered in this cause within three months from the date of this order, and in default thereof, that said amendment of bill of complaint be taken as confessed by the said defendants, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that within forty days plaintiffs cause a copy of this Order to be published in The Escanaba Daily Press, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in said County, such publication to be continued therein once each week for six weeks in succession, and that copies of said Order for Publication be mailed to each of said defendants at their present addresses in accordance with the statutes and the practice in such Court.

GLENN W. JACKSON, Circuit Judge.

Countersigned:
J. THEODORE OHLEN, Clerk of Circuit Court.

TAKE NOTICE that this suit, in which the foregoing order was duly made, involves and is brought to quiet title in the following described pieces or parcels of land situate and being in the Township of Garden, County of Delta and in the State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit:

First Flag In 35 Years Seems Sure For Phillies

By JORE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The flashy Phillies appeared a shoo-in today to capture their first flag in 35 years. However, it might have been the same old Philadelphia story had pitchers Jim Hearn joined the New York Giants earlier and had Sam Maglie been given starting assignments sooner.

Actually the Giants have fared better than the Phils since Hearn and Maglie became full-fledged members of the New York "Big Four." In the past seven weeks the Leo Durocher men have won 34 games while losing 17. During the same stretch, the Phils have won 33 and lost the same number.

Off to a raged start, the Giants today were no better than fourth place, 10½ games behind the Phils. Eddie Sawyer's youthful league-leaders, playing consistent baseball all the way, hold a seven game lead over the runnerup Brooklyn Dodgers with but 25 games left to play.

Except for a 2-2 loss by Hearn to Boston on Aug. 9, the Giants' two new pitching aces have achieved perfect records since becoming starters. Maglie has won all his nine starts. Hearn has won eight of nine.

The duo didn't yield a run yesterday as they hurled the Giants to a double shutout over the Phils, 2-0 and 9-0. Hearn gave up only five hits and Maglie nine.

Despite their double loss, the Phils didn't lose an inch of ground as the Dodgers bowed in both ends of their Labor Day double-header to the Braves in Boston, 11-4 and 3-2.

The Cincinnati Reds moved to within one percentage point of sixth place downing the fading St. Louis Cardinals twice, 5-4 and 8-4. Pittsburgh's rejuvenated Pirates whipped the Chicago Cubs

Tim & Sally's Capture Title

Young Girls Team Scores Upset

The girls' softball champions of Escanaba were crowned Sunday afternoon after a fighting team of youngsters proved their experience is not the only essential requisite of a champion. Tim & Sally's are the victors and did it the hard way. They won their first round game by defeating the St. Joe Girls and then had to meet the defending champs in a semi-final game. They were aided by the playing of the Delta Hardware's throughout the season, but felt that with a lot of practice, they would be a worthy adversary. They pulled the upset of the season by beating the Hardware's 4 to 1 and then went on to win over the Home Ecs in the finals.

The Home Ecs had won two league games over the Tim and Sally's, but the champions-to-be were on their way and really finished off the tournament in grand style. The battery combination of Carol Pilon and Ruby Stoykovich were too much for the Home Ecs. Carol pitched all three games of the tournament for the champs allowing 8 hits, striking out 22 batters and walking 3. Ruby besides catching and fielding exceptionally, hit 5 home runs in the three tourney games, two in the finals. The rest of the team played heads up ball and all contributed toward the championship by their never say die spirit that had all the fans pulling for them.

The first semi-final at 1:00 was a real thriller and a heart breaker for Gail Boucher, young pitching star of the Delta Hardware's. She had 12 strikeouts, walked one, but four errors by her teammates let her in for four runs. She allowed three hits, all scattered, but a bad sixth inning ruined her game. The Hardware's started off by scoring a run in the first on an error that let Barbara Jensen reach first and then continue all away around the bases on two wild throws. Tim & Sally's scored a run in the 5th when Arlene Koehler hit safely and was pushed around on another hit ball by Betty Cox. Patsy Willette walked to start the scoring for the T & S team in the 6th, when Corrine Berube hit safely, Carol Pilon walked, Ruby Stoykovich hit for a fielder's choice, followed by Arlene Koehler who did the same allowing Willette and Pilon to score. Betty Cox lined one through an infielder for an error and gave the Tim & Sally's another run. That finished the scoring for both teams. Jessie Pierce hit a triple in the 6th but was caught trying to stretch it into a homer.

The second game was an easy victory for the Home Ecs over the Farmers Union who had a bad case of tournament jitters. Beverly Burt started on the mound for the Home Ecs and was relieved by Eve Billings when they had 9-2 lead. Jean Hereau tossed for the losers.

Championship game was highlighted by the home runs of Betty Cox, Carol Pilon and 2 by Ruby Stoykovich. The fielding of Maxine Koehler at shortstop was outstanding. Beverly Burt struck out 2, walked 4 and gave up 4 hits. Janet Benard took over in the 6th and yielded 4 hits and 1 walk. Carol Pilon had 9 strikeouts, 1 walk and gave 2 hits.

The trophy was presented to the winning captain, Ruby Stoykovich by Pat Frasher, city recreation department.

twice, 5-3 and 3-0.

The American league race remained unchanged as all clubs divided doubleheaders.

The New York Yankees split with Philadelphia, winning the opener, 2-1, but losing the second, 4-3. The Detroit Tigers won the first game, 4-2, but lost the second, 5-4 to the St. Louis Browns. The Yanks thus stayed two games ahead of the Tigers.

Boston's Red Sox remained 3½ games off the pace splitting a pair with Washington. The Red Sox won the opener, 5-4, and Washington took the second, 5-3. Walt Droppo cracked two doubles, drove in a run and scored two for Boston's first game victory.

Cleveland won a 1-0 second game thriller from Chicago after the White Sox had taken the first game, 7-1. Mike Garcia received credit for his 10th triumph although Sam Zoldak pitched four scoreless relief innings to preserve his shutout.

John Mize his 18th and 19th homers for the Yanks. His 18th came in the first game to give Vic Raschi the nod over the A's Lou Brissie.

An error by second baseman Gerry Coleman allowed two Philadelphia runs to score in the second game. That, together with Elmer Valo's two-run double, enabled the A's to snap the Yankees' seven-game winning streak.

The softball marathon saw 61 teams play 75 games in four days. Rapping their bats for 12 consecutive hours yesterday on two diamonds to wind up the classic.

Lansing, the 1948 champion, went into the double-elimination finals undefeated, but dropped a 2-1 match to Jackson Willis. Then it poured on 11 runs in the third inning and captured the championship 13 to 0.

The Cardinals of Grand Rapids, came up through the losers' bracket to take Lansing Robert-Burgess twice 1-0 and 6-4 for the girls' crown. Barbara Tetro and Arlene Vanderkolk pitched no-hit, no-run ball in the first game.

In the Class B, for motors 10 to 16 HP, Eldred of Ishpeming defeated Irving DeRoock in a close battle. His time was 5 minutes, 36 seconds. Wimpy Mineau was third. Eldred repeated in the Class C event with DeRoock second and Fred Lonsdorf of Iron Mountain third. Time for this event was 5 minutes, 17 seconds.

In the Class D-E, Gordon Elson of Ishpeming was the winner in 5 minutes and 10 seconds with DeRoock second and Wimpy Mineau third.

The free-for-all went to Dude Dodge of Eagle River in the first round of 4 minutes and 26 seconds. Elson was second with Bob Johnson of St. Paul third and DeRoock fourth.

Dodge had run in several of the other events and appeared the winner, but he was running purely for practice as the motor he was using was not eligible for the other events.

Public Course Golf Championship Back In Michigan Again

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—The state public course golf championship is back in Michigan again.

Jack McGovern, 18-year-old factory worker, defeated Len Ruck, of Toledo, O., by five strokes in an 18 hole playoff here to win the title Monday.

Val Chaverrini of Toledo had won the title last year. And Ruck had appeared to be a sure bet to take it this year until he flubbed a three-foot putt on the 18th hole Sunday.

As a result McGovern tied him, and a playoff was needed. McGovern posted a 38-36-74 and Ruck a 43-36-79 in a rapidly played match yesterday. McGovern was two over par.

Ruck fell five strokes behind on the first nine, but rallied to cut McGovern's lead to two strokes after 14 holes. Then McGovern picked up a lead of three more strokes on the 15th and 17th at the Cascades course.

Shorelands Shut Out Munising, 10-0, Take East Division Title

MARQUETTE, Mich.—Marquette's powerful Shorelands won the championship of the Eastern Division of the Upper Peninsula baseball league by shutting out Munising 10-0, on the Alger's diamond yesterday. Gordy Olson, veteran right-hander, scattered seven hits for the Marquette nine, which also finished on top during the regular season.

The Shorelands also shut out Republic, 4-0, Sunday to gain the finals behind the two-hit pitching of Stan Sosnowski, while Munising

U. P. CLASS B CHAMPS—The Hughes Motors of Escanaba lost to Ludington, 1-0, in the state Class B tournament Sunday. Hughes Motors won the Class B championship. The players, left to right, follow: front row—Don Paulin,

Hughes Team Loses 1-0 In State Tournament

LANSING (AP)—A new set of champions reigned in the state softball association today following the annual Labor Day weekend mass tournament.

Lansing Dreyer's captured the men's class A crown, the Grand Rapids Cardinals seized the girls' class A title, Grand Rapids Brady won the men's class B cup, the Pontiac CIO girls took the girls' class B championship, Bay City House of Fogarty was top team in the men's class C meet and Reed City walked away with the girls' class C title.

The Midland Mains, only defending champion in the tournament, was set down at the last by the Pontiac team, 3 to 2.

Chatham-Trenary Game Brings On A 'Rhubarb'

The South division championship of the Rainbow league apparently is still in doubt.

The Trenary-Chatham game at Chatham Sunday blew up in the ninth inning with Chatham leading, 1-0, and ended in a row with the final outcome apparently still unsettled.

Here was the setting: Chatham leading, 1-0; Trenary had runners on first and third with two men out. The count was 3 and 2 on Druckenmiller, batting for Trenary, when Brown, who was on deck, next man to bat, called to Pitcher Salminen of Chatham to "let me see the ball".

Salminen tossed the ball to Brown, who let the ball trickle away while the Trenary runner scored from third base.

It was a repetition of one of the oldest tricks in baseball, but Chatham argued that Salminen had called "time" before tossing the ball. Chatham refused to continue the game, according to information received by the Daily Press sports department, with the likely result that Trenary will win the game on forfeit. In any case, it's a matter for league officials to decide.

In the meantime, the Marquette Cardinals are awaiting the result because if Trenary gets the victory, the Cards will have to play Trenary for the South division championship. The winner will play Gwin in the league playoff.

The women's final will pit defending champion Mrs. Margaret Osborne Dupont of Wilmington, Del., against Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Dupont beat Nancy Chaffee of Ventura, Calif., 6-1, 1-6, 6-0, while Miss Hart eliminated Beverly Baker of Santa Monica, Calif., 6-4, 6-1.

J. Gilbert Hall won the veteran's single title for the seventh straight year when he scored a 6-1, 7-5 victory over John Sisson of Los Angeles in the final.

Brooklyn-Sugar Ray Robinson, 190, New York; right-handed Billy Brown, 190½, Hartford, Conn., 19.

Marquette will play the winner of the Hancock-Houghton series for the league championship in a best two-of-three event beginning September 17.

Birds Eye Team Cops Old Timers Softball Title

The Birds Eye won the Old Timers softball championship Sunday night, defeating the Eagles, 9 to 0, in the title game. The Birds Eye eliminated the St. Jos Boosters Saturday, 14-11, while the Eagles earned a place in the finals by defeating Phoenix Lumbermen, 9 to 6.

The battery for the Birds Eye in the finals were George Wise and Ted Mileski. Windy Winchester pitched for the Eagles with Al LaFave catching.

Western Conference Coaches Start Out With Usual Moans

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (AP)—Twice-a-day football practices for 611 hopefuls—beginning nearly 200 lettermen—begin tomorrow in the Western conference unaccompanied by the usual loud moans from coaches.

That doesn't mean they are all satisfied with the material in stock. But for some reason the crying towels are not being included as part of the equipment in such quantities this season.

Good Arm Wanted

Here are some notes from the scratch pad as the football floodgates are opened:

Illinois, weakest passing team in the Big Ten last year, is still looking for an "arm." . . . Don Engels, gifted as a long tosser, may be the answer, but watch for running Johnny Karras to do some southpaw pitching. . . . Red Grange didn't throw a pass in his sophomore year, but completed 27 aeriels for 524 yards as a junior—a strategy being planned for young Karras, the 1949 ball-carrying record breaker. . . .

Two Chicago sophomores, 6 foot 2 inch Rex Smith and Andy Wozniak, both end prospects, may develop into the Illi's ranking pass catchers. . . . Out of the squad of 79, 67 players are from Illinois. . . . the accent is on youth, with 26 teen agers in the group. . . .

Northwestern has only two lettermen for the positions of quarterback, fullback and tackle. . . . Everett Clay, pointing out that 38 race horses which visited his track last winter had won 64 stakes races at northern tracks up to late August. . . . This record, Ev adds, was compiled without the aid of the powerful Calumet stable, which wintered its biggest string "in an unnamed western state where the winter climate is not comparable to Florida." . . . Chicago Bears are claiming three of the best kickers in the National football league. George Guryanics topped the circuit last year with a 47 yard average and Curley Morrison have been outdistancing him. Item omits mention of George Halas, who does a right good job in league meetings. . . . Since Joe DiMaggio seems to have started hitting again, Casey Stengel claims the Yankees are the most solid team in the American league.

Purdue Opens Tough
Chuck Ortmann, whose passing and running at Michigan made him the 1949 total offense champion, will add punting to his repertoire this fall. . . . Roger Zatkoff, a converted fullback, is of the smashing linebacking type that made Dick Kemphorn king of the secondary. . . .

Purdue has the toughest opening schedule, invading Austin to meet the Texas Longhorns, a procession Southwest conference favorites, then traveling to Notre Dame the next Saturday. . . . Out of 70 candidates only 23 saw varsity action last year. . . . Lou Kerestes, a brother of co-captain and fullback John Kerestes, is a leading sophomore halfback prospect. . . .

Regatta, You All
James J. Corbett, New England-born drummer for Louisiana State U., fears language complications in his school's football broadcasts this fall. . . . Chief word-slinger Gordon McLendon, calls himself "the old Scotchman," but he came from Texas and can speak Japanese fluently. . . . Assistant John Ferguson is a Louisiana of Irish antecedents. . . . Some day Corbett expects to hear "come out of the loudspeakers: 'Faith an' Ye shoulda seen the Boss' had run down the field—yell' fast'."

Sox Deal For Boudreau Denied
CHICAGO (AP)—Rumors have been officially spiked that Lou Boudreau, manager of the Cleveland Indians, will become the Chicago White Sox pilot for 1951.

Yesterday General Manager Hank Greenberg of Cleveland met with Vice President Chuck Conley and General Manager Frank Lane of the Sox.

Both Greenberg and Lane denied any impending deal on Boudreau, however.

"There is absolutely nothing to it," said Greenberg.

Bill Connors Wins Marquette Tournney

MARQUETTE (Special)—Bill Connors shot a two-under-par 34 at Medalist Bob Thomson and went on to win, 7 to 6, in the finals of the twenty-second annual Marquette Golf club championship tournament here yesterday afternoon. Thomson was low qualifier with 76. Tony Miluches was defending champion.

End Jim Duncan, 24, formerly of Wake Forest, and fullback Charles Schroll, 24, ex-Louisiana State star, will report from the Browns to the Lions' training camp at Michigan State Normal's campus at Ypsilanti today.

Detroit Lions Get Two From Browns

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions acquired two players from the Cleveland Browns in a National football league deal yesterday.

End Jim Duncan, 24, formerly of Wake Forest, and fullback Charles Schroll, 24, ex-Louisiana State star, will report from the Browns to the Lions' training camp at Michigan State Normal's campus at Ypsilanti today.

Quarterback Troubles

Coach Wes Fesler at Ohio State, loser of 21 lettermen, says he anticipates "wholesale rebuilding" . . . his best sophomore quarterback is Tony Curcillo of Elyria, Ohio. . . . Watch for him. . . .

Quarterback troubles also are common at Indiana and Minnesota. . . . The Hoosiers must rely on Lou D'Achille, a stocky 165-pounder who tossed 24 touchdown passes in his last two years at Beaver Falls, Pa., high school. . . . Dick Wheaton may be shifted from defense to the Gophers' signal-calling spot. . . .

Another bone-jarring quarterback is 210-pound Bob Gelle, one of the nation's heaviest at that position. . . .

While other schools are worrying about quarterbacking, Iowa and Wisconsin are unconcerned. . . . The Haweyes have two veterans ready, Glenn Drahn and Fred Ruck. . . . Drahn hit 35 per cent of his passes last year for 735 yards and nine touchdowns. . . . The Badgers have a fine pair in Bob Petruska and John Coatta. . . .

Tigers Split, Miss Chance To Gain On Leading Yanks

By CHARLES C. CAIN
DETROIT — (AP)—Paul (Dizzy) Trout got a new car, an outboard motor and $500 from his admirers yesterday but still was a most unhappy fellow.

He failed to get the thing he wanted most—a decision over the St. Louis Browns in the finale of the Detroit Tigers' Labor Day doubleheader before 37,515 fans.

Dizzy was gunning for his 150th victory as a Tiger and looked as if he was well on his way with a five-hit 3-0 shutout through seven innings. But the Browns spoiled things for him in the eighth and drove him to the showers.

Four St. Louis runs poured across the plate as the visitors went merrily on their way to a 5-4 decision after the Tigers had taken the opener 4-2.

White Takes the Loss
Trout wasn't charged with the loss. That item was allocated to Hal White, first of three Detroit relief pitchers who proved most ineffectual.

The day wasn't a total loss for White, who got credit for the first game triumph to wind up the day's work with a 5-6 record.

Ned Garver, who eventually bowed to the Tigers for the fifth time this year, was a bit of a hard-luck guy in the opener which saw him take a 2-0 lead in to the eighth. Art Houtteman, Tiger starter, departed in that same inning.

Three hits and a pair of walks accounted for all four Detroit runs in the eighth, with Johnny Groth singling home two and Gerry Priddy driving in another to give Detroit the decision.

The Tigers built up a three run lead in the nightcap with Gerry Priddy accounting for one of them on his ninth homer in the seventh inning.

Then the Browns took over. They put four hits and three walks together for four runs in the eighth. They added another in the ninth as Ray Coleman tripled home a run.

The Tigers were far from through. Hoot Evers and Johnny Groth singled and pinch-hitter Pat Mullin walked to load the bases with none out against relief pitcher Dick Starr.

Catcher Joe Ginsberg then fled to center, Evers scoring from third after the catch. Mullin tried to move to second after the catch and was out by 15 feet.

Pinch-hitter Charlie Keller walked, putting Tigers on first and third with two out. Starr wound it up by forcing Don Kolloway to ground out and the Tigers had to settle for a split.

It was a tough loss for the Tigers, for a sweep of the twin bill would have enabled them to pick up a full game on the New York Yankees who also split. The Tigers thus remained two games behind the league leaders.

Ray Herbert (1-1) was named to pitch the finale of the three game series tonight, with Duane Pillette 2-3 going for St. Louis.

Manistique Wins From Ishpeming In Opener

MANISTIQUE—Before a capacity crowd at the high school stadium on Saturday night, the Manistique Emeralds opened their season with a hard fought 20 to 13 victory over the Ishpeming high school griders.

The Emeralds, whom Coach John Vierger had admitted would be almost as "green" a team as the color of their new uniforms, showed no lack of spirit or determination to win against a team that outweighed them in the line and backfield. Manistique chose to take to the air and unleashed a passing combination that might prove to be their biggest scoring threat throughout the season. Coach Vierger's kick to Quick was good for two touchdowns and set up the other.

Ishpeming was sparked by the brilliant punning and kicking of Don Swanson who scored in the first quarter from the Manistique 30 yard line and kicked the extra point. However, after Swanson was injured in the 4th quarter, the Ishpeming team lacked any further offensive power.

Babbladell and Clement were the two outstanding linemen for Manistique, shining in their defensive play especially. Strasser, who did most of the Emerald kicking, got off several long ones, and was robbed of a chance for a field goal from the Ishpeming 20 in the third quarter when a bad pass from center upset the play. He also kicked the two points after touchdown.

The play by quarters:
First Quarter—Manistique took the kick to their own 33, but lost the ball on the first down by a fumble. Ishpeming was held for 4 downs. Manistique took over on their 27. Heinz kicked and it was Ishpeming's ball on their 36. Swanson took the ball to the Emerald 30. On the next play Swanson scored from the 30. Swanson's kick was good. McKenzie took the kick-off to the Manistique 30. Manistique penalized for having 12 men on the field. Heinz punted to the Ishpeming 38. Ishpeming marched to the Emerald 16, where Manistique took over as the quarter ended.
Second Quarter—Manistique, sparked by the running of Burns

MacArthur's Troubles Caused By His Friends

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—Of all the angry controversies between General MacArthur and the top military men directing World War II in the Pentagon, perhaps none was as bitter as that over the outcome of the battle of the Bismarck sea. That controversy may be revived by an official air force history shortly to be released.

The incident strikingly illustrates the difficult relationship between Washington and the general, who has become a pro-consul for America in Asia. President Truman recently discovered these difficulties for himself in a row that seemed to pit MacArthur as a soldier, against politicians and diplomats. During the last war it was MacArthur against other military commanders, notably Admiral Chester Nimitz, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, with whom relations were, to put it mildly, strained.

MacArthur's Figures High

Military historians, with access to files still classified, have long debated the Bismarck sea battle. After that battle MacArthur claimed that B-17's under his Southwest Pacific command, had sunk 22 transports and destroyers out of a Japanese convoy, with a loss of not less than 20,000 Japanese.

Air Force headquarters in Washington made a careful study of this claim. In addition to all the material available at MacArthur's headquarters, they had intelligence reports obtained through the breaking of the Jap code. Their conclusion was that probably not more than 14 ships were sunk out of a convoy that never included more than 16 vessels. The loss of life was put at much less than MacArthur's estimate.

This called forth a series of angry telegrams from MacArthur's headquarters. One of these telegrams signed by MacArthur suggested that those responsible for rating down the victory should be subjected to possible punishment by a court-martial.

Air Force headquarters braved MacArthur's anger, and stuck to its estimate of losses in the Bismarck sea battle. The official Air Force history is also reported to stand on this version.

But MacArthur, in September of 1945, in one of the most interesting direct quote interviews he has ever granted, repeated his original claim. He said the Japanese had lost 22 ships and 100 planes in what he described as the "decisive aerial engagement" in his theater of the war. "Some people have doubted the figure in that battle, but we have the names of every ship sunk," MacArthur told the reporter.

There are those, and they include some of MacArthur's sincere admirers, who explain this side of the general by references to the men around him. They tend to become hero-worshippers. Their hero-worship is actually a disservice to MacArthur, since it obscures the real qualities that make him a great man and, in the years in Japan, a force for peace and stability of comparable value to his country.

May Injure General

This contribution can be lost sight of if MacArthur becomes a center of political controversy, exploited for selfish ends by some politicians. After 14 years out of the United States the general may have forgotten how fierce and how indiscriminate are the political currents running in an election year.

The Republican party intends to make its own use of MacArthur in the congressional campaign. This could be helpful to the party. But, whether it will, in the longer perspective of history, be helpful to the general, is another matter.

General MacArthur allowed himself to be exploited in the campaign year of 1948. He permitted his name to be entered in the Republican primary in Wisconsin. MacArthur ran a poor second to Harold Stassen.

But the most unhappy consequence came in Philadelphia. At the Republican convention there the chief contenders for the nomination saw sure victory for the nominee. They were not in the mood to stand aside for a military hero.

Yet MacArthur's admirers persisted in putting his name before the convention, and few who sat through that hot night, in that sparsely filled Convention Hall, will forget the pathos of it. On the first ballot MacArthur got 11 votes, eight from Wisconsin, two from Iowa and one from Kentucky. On the second ballot this dropped to seven, and the MacArthur flurry was over.

This surely did not add to the general's stature, nor did it make easier his task of governing Japan. If the war in Korea is localized and the peace is kept in Asia, MacArthur's place in history could be larger than that of any of the fighting generals. He has so much more to gain from a stable peace based on strength and security than from a war among the peoples with whom he has lived for so long.

Rapid River Plans Entertainment for Foreign Students

RAPID RIVER—A committee consisting of Mrs. Murray Cole, board of education president, William Turan, American Legion commander, Bert Proehl, president of the Lions club, and Walter C. Peters, superintendent of schools, has been busy working out an itinerary for three foreign students from Michigan State College, who will visit Rapid River from Thursday evening, September 7, through Sunday noon, September 10.

The tentative program is as follows:

Thursday evening—visit and rest at home of hosts.

Friday, all day—participation in school affairs with an assembly tentatively scheduled for 10:00 a. m.

Friday, evening—picnic and tour of immediate area.

Saturday, all day—fishing, boating and long peninsula trip.

Saturday, evening—pot luck dinner participated in by entire community at the Legion Hall.

Anyone desiring the privilege of learning to know these young people better, and wishing to entertain them for one meal or one night's lodging, please contact any of the committee members. It is desirable that these young people be accommodated in different homes for each meal and night's lodging, so that they might experience as many views of American life as possible.
